Programme Progression

How language learning builds across the school: Stage 3 opens up the languages already around the class and how language itself works, and Stage 4 takes one of them and teaches it — for your whole-school plan and School Self-Evaluation.

Curriculum aims

- Develop curiosity about and appreciation of the languages and cultures in the classroom, community and the wider world.
- Build communicative competence in the new language (L3) at a very basic to basic level — listening, speaking, reading and responding.
- Foster plurilingual competence by connecting the L3 to English, Irish and the other languages children already know.
- Develop intercultural awareness, comparing cultures and traditions sensitively and respectfully.
- Grow confidence, creativity and a positive disposition to language learning through playful, interactive engagement.
